SportsInnovation on 11 and 12 May 2022 in Düsseldorf

The dates for the next edition of SportsInnovation have now been confirmed. The trade fair at which numerous exhibitors from the areas of sport, media and sports facilities present the trends of the future in their fields will take place on 11 and 12 May 2022 in Düsseldorf. At the heart of the industry event hosted by DFL Deutsche Fußball Liga, Sports City Düsseldorf and Messe Düsseldorf will again be the “innovation matches”: football matches in which the latest technologies are demonstrated live.

This edition of the event will again be held at the MERKUR SPIEL-ARENA in Düsseldorf. At its premiere in 2018, the innovation trade fair recorded 47 exhibitors as well as more than 900 guests from 21 countries. After the event scheduled for 2020 could not go ahead due to the coronavirus pandemic, SportsInnovation will be back for its second edition in 2022.

Further details regarding SportsInnovation 2022 will be announced in the coming months.
